Melissa A. Lavinson

Director, Federal Environmental Affairs and Corporate Responsibility
PG&E Corporation

Melissa Lavinson joined PG&E Corporation's Corporate Environmental and Federal Affairs organization in 2003 from National Energy and Gas Transmission, Inc., where she was responsible for developing and coordinating public policy positions and political strategies for NEG's External Affairs Department. Prior to joining NEG, Melissa was a Senior Associate at MRW & Associates in Oakland, California, a consulting firm providing financial, economic, environmental, and market analysis to competitive energy suppliers, generators, large consumers, and utilities. She began her career with ICF Consulting, where she compiled greenhouse gas emissions inventories and worked on other climate-related matters for the U.S. EPA, U.S. DOE, World Bank and IPCC.
