

Access to Experts

Curtis H. "Hank" Barnette

Of Counsel

Skadden, Arps , Slate, Meagher and Flom, LLP

Curtis H. "Hank" Barnette's law practice focuses on the areas of corporate law, corporate governance, arbitration, international trade and public policy. Mr. Barnette is chairman emeritus of Bethlehem Steel Corporation. He first joined Bethlehem Steel as an attorney in 1967, and he held the positions of general counsel and secretary, and senior vice president and director before serving as the company's chairman and CEO from 1992 to 2000. Mr. Barnette was an appointed member of the President's Trade Advisory Committee, serving from 1989 to 2001 under Presidents George H. W. Bush, Bill Clinton and George W. Bush. President Reagan appointed him to the Council of the Administrative Conference of the United States in 1988 and Secretary of Labor Elizabeth Dole named him to the Coal Commission in 1990. He was appointed by Pennsylvania Gov. Tom Ridge to the state's 21st Century Environmental Commission, a position he held from 1997 to 1998. Mr. Barnette is a former director of MetLife, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and Owens Corning and was a member of the Norfolk Southern Advisory Board. He is the Comenius Professor and a trustee at Moravian College, a former member of the Business Council, a member of the Council of Retired Chief Executives, a senior adviser to The Conference Board. Mr. Barnette has testified before congressional committees and has written, spoken and advised about corporate, litigation, international trade, corporate governance and related matters. He is the 2010 recipient of Corporate Board Member magazine's Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2009, he received the John H. Pickering Award from the National Center for State Courts.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org