

Access to Experts

Dr. John C. Dernbach
Distinguished Professor of Law
Director, Environmental Law Center
Widener University School of Law

John C. Dernbach is Distinguished Professor of Law, focusing on administrative law, environmental law, property, international law, international environmental law, sustainability and the law, climate change and sustainable development. He has served as director of the Policy Office at the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection, which is responsible for developing and coordinating policy and regulatory initiatives for DEP, including the integration of sustainable development concepts into DEP programs. Professor Dernbach has written widely on environmental law and sustainable development. He is the editor of Agenda for a Sustainable America (Environmental Law Institute Press, January 2009) and Stumbling Toward Sustainability (Environmental Law Institute Press 2002), comprehensive assessments of U.S. sustainable development activities that include recommendations for future efforts.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org