

Candace Jodice

former Vice President, Benefits
CVS Health

: Ms. Jodice is responsible for the design and financial management of colleague benefits programs for ~300,000 colleagues at an annual expense of ~$2.5 billion. She directs a team of individuals engaged in program strategy, design and implementation, plan compliance, analytics, financial management, as well as partner relationship management. She has more than 30 years of benefits and compensation experience. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Human Resource Management from Bridgewater State College and holds Certified Compensation Professional (CCP) and Certified Benefits Professional (CBP) designations from World at Work. She is a member of the New England Employee Benefits Council, the Council on Employee Benefits, American Benefits Council, HR Policy Association, Business Roundtable, ERISA Industry Committee and the Business Group on Health for which she serves as a Board Member for the Cost Solutions Institute.