Using the Composite Indexes: The Leading Economic Index (LEI) provides an early indication of significant turning points in the business cycle and where the economy is heading in the near term. The Coincident Economic Index (CEI) provides an indication of the current state of the economy. Additional details are below.

The Conference Board Leading Economic Index® (LEI) for the UK Ticked Down in July

The Conference Board Leading Economic Index® (LEI) for the United Kingdom ticked down by 0.1% in July 2026 to 74.8 (2016=100), after also decreasing by 0.1% in June. As a result, the UK LEI contracted by 1.2% over the six-month period from January to July 2026, slightly greater than the rate of decline of 0.8% observed over the previous six-month period between July 2025 and January 2026.

The Conference Board Coincident Economic Index® (CEI) for the United Kingdom remained unchanged in July 2026 at 108.1 (2016=100), after increasing by 0.1% in June. Overall, the CEI for the UK grew by 0.3% over the six-month period from January to July 2026, slightly smaller than the increase of 0.4% observed over the previous six-month period between July 2025 and January 2026.

The next release is scheduled for Wednesday, October 14, 2026, at 9:30 A.M. ET.

The UK LEI fell for the seventh consecutive month

Weaknesses in consumer and housing sales expectations fueled the LEI's decline in July

 Statistical Imputation. -- Q: Quarterly series; these series are converted to a monthly series through a linear interpolation.
LEI change might not equal sum of its contributions due to application of trend adjustment factor.

The 6-month growth rate of the UK LEI remained unchanged and with a stronger diffusion index the warning signal was not triggered in July

NOTE: The chart illustrates the so-called 3Ds—duration, depth, and diffusion—for interpreting a downward movement in the LEI. Duration refers to how long the decline has lasted. Depth denotes the size of decline. Duration and depth are measured by the rate of change of the index over the most recent six months at an annualized rate. Diffusion is a measure of how widespread the decline is among the LEI's component indicators—on a scale of 0 to 100, a diffusion index reading below 50 indicates most components are weakening.

The 3Ds rule signals an impending recession when: 1) the six-month diffusion index lies at or below 50, shown by the black warning signal lines in the chart; and 2) the LEI's six-month growth rate (annualized) falls below the threshold of -3.6% . The red recession signal lines indicate months when both criteria are met simultaneously—and thus that a recession is likely imminent or underway.

About The Conference Board Leading Economic Index® (LEI) and Coincident Economic Index® (CEI) for the United Kingdom

The composite economic indexes are key elements in an analytic system designed to signal peaks and troughs in the business cycle. Comprised of multiple independent indicators, the indexes are constructed to summarize and reveal common turning points in the economy in a clearer and more convincing manner than any individual component.

The CEI reflects current economic conditions and is highly correlated with real GDP. The LEI is a predictive tool that anticipates—or “leads”—turning points in the business cycle by around eleven months.
