

CED Member

As an individual member of the Committee for Economic Development of The Conference Board (CED), you will engage with CED experts and have access to the bi-annual policy conferences and monthly conference calls with updates on CED's latest initiatives; the ability to develop and implement policy through Subcommittee meetings; receive weekly e-mail briefings which provide a snapshot of CED's policy work and media coverage, as well as progress made by policymakers; and, have the opportunity to author opinion editorials, blog on CED's website, and provide commentary on posts.

You will also have access to The Conference Board's (TCB) research and events, including:

100+ conferences/seminars annually, on topics that include corporate governance, economy & business environment, and human capital

1,300+ additional publications available online

200+ new Webcasts annually, with over 500 webcasts on-demand

150+ new research publications annually

The Conference Board, founded in 1916, is a nonprofit, global, independent business membership and research organization which provides practical knowledge to improve business leaders' performance and better serve society.

Benefits (Effective 1.1.2015)	$25,000
CED Policy & Impact Committee	✓
CED Subcommittees	✓
Attendance to two CED Policy Conferences	✓
Guest attendance at TCB Conferences	5 free passes
Discount to all TCB Conferences	50%
Individual access to all CED/TCB research, economic indicators, and webcasts	✓

For questions, please contact Mindy Berry at mberry@ced.org or 202 469 7826.

www.ced.org | www.conferenceboard.org